

An introduction to the IPS approach

A three-hour training session on the basic elements of the individual placement and support (IPS) approach to evidence-based employment support.

About the training

This three-hour session will ensure you understand the basic elements of IPS.

The training is ideal for anyone interested in supporting people with mental health and addiction issues into employment. This could include:

- employment support practitioners
- health professionals
- peer and family organisations
- Work and Income case managers
- Department of Corrections case managers
- policy professionals
- funders and leadership teams.

Learning objectives

The learning objectives include understanding:

- the eight principles underpinning the approach
- research evidence
- fidelity scale
- New Zealand policy drivers.

Further information

 workcounts.co.nz

 info@workcounts.co.nz

“It was valuable getting an overview of the IPS approach. I understood each point and was provided great examples.”